You'll need a few things to sign up:

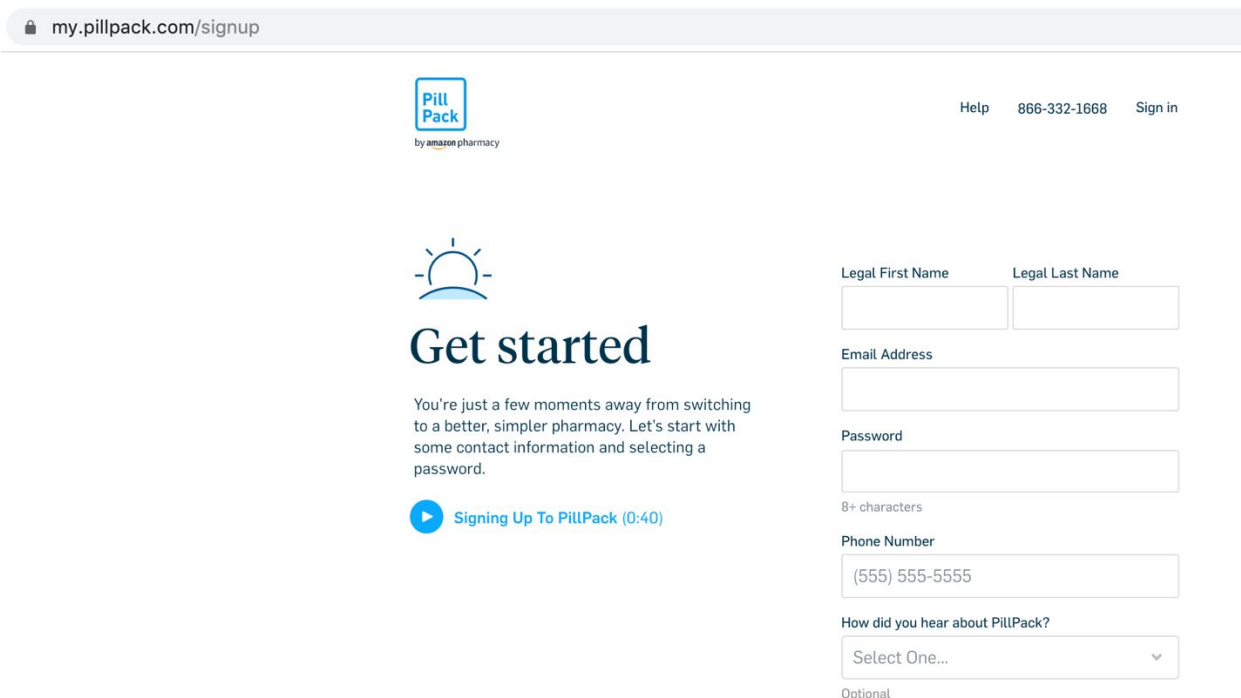

1. Your list of your medications
2. Your doctor information
3. Any insurance information
4. Your payment method

How to get started with Pillpack

1. Go to Pillpack.com and click "Get started"

2. Set up your account by entering your information and setting up a password
